Fee and terms

The Festival shall pay the Company a performance fee of Rs 2,00,000 (Rupees Two Lakh only), inclusive of the live ensemble of three musicians. An advance of Rs 60,000 is payable on signing, with the balance of Rs 1,40,000 payable within fifteen days of performance. The Festival provides the stage, house lighting rig, sound system, and two technical operators. The Company provides choreography, dancers, musicians, costumes, and the projection content and operator.

The Company retains all artistic and choreographic rights to Five Elements. The Festival may record the performance for archival and promotional use with the Company's prior written approval of any public release. The opening-slot billing and programme credit shall read: Ceili Mor Academy of Dance presents Five Elements, choreography by Jean Mullen.

Cancellation by either party requires twenty-one days written notice. Force majeure provisions apply. This engagement continues the Company's standing relationship with the city's winter festival season.
