Drive

Atlanta to Hilton Head is about five hours. Plan to roll out Saturday morning after the early workout, one stop in Macon for gas and snacks. The 4Runner has room for the bikes.

Plan

Saturday is settle in and beach walk. Sunday morning is a family bike ride on the flat trails, then the beach for the afternoon while the kids dig in. Monday we hit the lighthouse at Harbour Town and find a good shrimp spot for dinner. Tuesday we pack up after breakfast and head home. Keep the mornings active and the afternoons easy.

Packing notes: sunscreen, the beach tent, swim gear for the twins, and snacks that work for Karen so dining out is not the only option. Check the surf and tide before the Sunday ride.
