

Professional Certification Record

Maintained by Joseph William Fields, Senior HVAC Technician, Central Ohio Climate Solutions LLC. This personal record summarizes the trade credentials held by the technician named above. Physical cards are kept in the service van binder and at home.

EPA Section 608 Technician Certification

Certified individual	Joseph William Fields
Certification type	Universal, all refrigerant types
Certificate number	608U-2003-44871
Issued by	ESCO Institute, EPA approved program
Date issued	June 9, 2003
Expiration	Does not expire under current EPA rule

North American Technician Excellence (NATE)

Certified individual	Joseph William Fields
NATE identification number	1182246
Certification earned	2005
Specialty, installation	Air Conditioning and Air Distribution
Specialty, service	Heat Pumps, Gas Furnaces
Most recent recertification	October 3, 2023
Valid through	October 3, 2025, recertification in progress

Training History and Standing

Continuing Education and Manufacturer Training

Course	Provider	Completed
OSHA 10 hour General Industry	Authorized OSHA trainer	February 2024
Variable speed inverter systems	Manufacturer training	November 2024
Commercial refrigerant leak detection	Trade association	March 2024
Carbon monoxide and combustion safety	Trade association	October 2024
Heat pump cold climate performance	Manufacturer training	January 2025

Field Standing

Twenty three years of field experience across commercial and residential systems. Employer designated lead for complex commercial and residential diagnostics, and first call for difficult no cooling and no heat tickets. First time fix rate tracked above ninety percent.

Maintenance and Reminders

Item	Status
NATE recertification	In progress, target late 2026
EPA 608 Universal	Active, no expiration
OSHA 10	Current
Physical card copies	Van binder and home file