

Consignment Agreement

Between Shibui Gallery and the Artist

Shibui Gallery

Gion, Kyoto

For the Seasonal Table show

Gallery	Shibui Gallery, represented by Akiko Watanabe, Director
Artist	Margaret Farmer, studio potter, Higashiyama
Exhibition	Seasonal Table, solo show. Opening 10 October 2026.
Term	Consignment from delivery of work until 30 November 2026, then unsold work returns to the artist.

Terms

1. The artist consigns the works listed in the show price list. Title stays with the artist until a piece sells.
2. Gallery commission is 40 percent of the retail price. The artist receives 60 percent, paid by bank transfer within 30 days of sale.
3. Retail prices are set together and printed on the price list. Neither side discounts a piece more than 10 percent without the other agreeing.
4. The gallery insures consigned work against loss and damage while it is on the premises, at retail value.
5. The gallery handles display, sales, and the consumption tax. The artist handles delivery to the gallery and collection of unsold work.
6. The artist may withhold a piece for the museum commission approach by telling the gallery in writing before the opening.
7. Photography of the work for promotion is by the gallery with the artist's approval. The artist's own images stay the artist's.

Statements

The gallery issues a sales statement twice a year, in January and July, listing each piece sold, the retail price, the commission, and the net paid. The most recent statement covered the second half of 2025.

Akiko Watanabe, Shibui Gallery Date

Margaret Farmer, Artist Date