

Household Financial Review - November 2026

Monthly review with Nicole, first weekend of the month. Figures are household-confidential, kept between Nate and Nicole only. Confirmation threshold for any spend or transfer remains $350, or $30 a month recurring.

Income

- Nate base: $118,000. Overtime and on-call run $8,000 to $12,000 a year.
- Nicole base: $78,000. Combined household income above $196,000.
- Take-home roughly $7,200 a month.

Fixed Outgoings

- Mortgage $2,450. station wagon $420. midsize sedan $380.
- Health insurance $290 a paycheck.
- Credit card cleared in full monthly.

Savings And Goals

- Emergency fund $34,000 of a $40,000 target. The $6,000 gap is the focus into 2027.
- 529 plans: Nolan $38,000, Chloe $22,000.
- 401(a) reviewed quarterly, off-platform.

Actions

Hold non-essential spend through the holidays. Set the OBX 2027 budget envelope at the December review. Recompute the emergency-fund percentage from the live balance, not this snapshot, when reporting it.