THE TABLE WE GREW UP AT

Cuisine du Nord is a family kitchen that grew into a catering operation. Every tourtière is hand crimped, every crust is laminated the night before, every plate looks like it came from the table you were always welcome at. We are bringing the réveillon home, even if home is currently a Tuesday in Beaverton.

TOURTIÈRE, TRADITIONAL

Classic pork tourtière

Ground pork, onion, warm spice (clove, cinnamon, allspice), buttery hand crimped crust. Papa Luc's family recipe.

Wild game tourtière

Pork, venison, juniper, red wine reduction. Earthier, deeper.
Pairs with a heavy red.

Vegetarian tourtière

Mushroom duxelles, lentil, root vegetable, thyme. The vegetarian that vegetarians actually ask for again.

TOURTIÈRE, FUSION

Kimchi tourtière (signature, bestseller)

Pork shoulder slow braised with aged napa kimchi and gochujang, sesame in the crust. Developed with Sienna Park, sous chef at Copperstone Grill.

Irish stew tourtière

Lamb, Guinness braise, root vegetable, parsley. A tip of the hat to Patrick Doyle and a pint at the Hawthorne.

Buffalo chicken tourtière

Braised dark meat, blue cheese crumble, hot sauce in the gravy.
The party request that started as a joke and stuck.

SIDES AND SHARES

Cretons small jar, served with toast points and

	grainy mustard
Soupe aux pois	yellow split pea, smoked ham hock, herb crouton
Poutine bar	fresh cut potato, squeaky curd, beef gravy, optional pulled pork or shredded duck
Tarte au sucre	Papa Luc's. He has opinions about it.
Maple crème brûlée	dark amber maple, sugar crust, candied pecan

HOW WE WORK

Yves Quinn, owner and head cook
Papa Luc, prep and the soul of the kitchen
Émile Quinn, service for events of 40 or more
Sienna Park guests in for events of 80 or more when available

All food cooked under Multnomah County cottage food permit
MC-DK-2024-1187 through 16 November 2026, with transition to Culinary Crossroads shared commercial kitchen on the calendar.

Allergens disclosed on request. Gluten free crust available on 72 hours notice for any tourtière (Émile is celiac, we take this seriously).
