Memo and Reconciliation

This refund was processed in Square against the Pearl Street rowhouse boiler relief invoice after Maria Thornton flagged a line on the September statement that had been billed twice. The duplicate line totaled three hundred fifteen dollars and the refund was issued at that exact amount.

The Square ledger records the refund as PAY_STERLING_REFUND_PEARL for three one five zero zero cents, completed on October 22 at fourteen thirty five UTC at location LOC_FISHTOWN. This is the authoritative figure for the refund on the Porter & Koval books.

A separate note from Maria Thornton arrived on October 23 carrying a figure of two hundred ninety eight dollars on her ledger end of Friday. That figure represents the partial view on the Sterling Property Management side before the duplicate line was identified and corrected. The Square authoritative figure of three hundred fifteen dollars is the figure that the Porter & Koval refund book reflects.

Because the refund amount is above the three hundred dollar spending ceiling on the Porter & Koval operating rules, the original commit of this refund required Emily Porter approval. Approval was granted on October 22 prior to the Square refund being processed at fourteen thirty five UTC.
