Winter Service Promotion, Residential Customers

Cold weather is coming. Porter & Koval Plumbing LLC is offering a winter readiness package for residential customers in the Fishtown, Kensington, Brewerytown, and surrounding Philadelphia neighborhoods through January 31 2027.

The package includes a visual inspection of the exposed plumbing in the basement and the unheated spaces of the house, a check of the main shutoff valve and the outdoor hose bibs, a flush of the water heater, and a written report with photos and recommendations. The flat package price is one hundred sixty five dollars for a typical row house and one hundred ninety dollars for a typical twin or detached single family house.

Customers who book the package by November 15 receive a free hose bib cover kit at the time of the inspection. Customers who book a follow up repair within thirty days of the inspection receive credit toward the repair equal to the package price.

To book, call the shop at 215 555 0188 extension 1 or email service@porterkoval.example.com. Please mention the winter promotion when booking.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long does the inspection take?

About forty five minutes for a typical row house, longer for larger houses.

Do you provide a report?

Yes, a written report with photos is emailed within two business days of the inspection.

What if you find something serious?

We will explain it on site, leave you with the photos and the report, and quote any repair work separately. There is no obligation to use Porter & Koval for the repair.

Do you service apartments?

Yes for accessible units. We can also coordinate with the building manager when needed.

Is there a satisfaction guarantee?

Yes, if you are not satisfied with the inspection or the report, the package price is refunded in full.
