

Susan Porter Chili Recipe Card

Personal recipe. Not for the pottery close.

From Mom's card, Porter-Miller kitchen, adapted a little.

Serves 6 to 8. Best on a cool Tulsa night after a Tahlequah drive.

Ingredients

2 lbs ground beef (80/20)
1 large yellow onion, chopped
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 red bell pepper, chopped
2 cans diced tomatoes (28 oz total)
1 can tomato sauce (15 oz)
2 cans kidney beans, drained
1 can pinto beans, drained
3 tbsp chili powder
1 tbsp cumin
1 tsp smoked paprika
1 tsp oregano
Salt and black pepper to taste
1 tbsp brown sugar
1 cup beef broth

Method

1. Brown the beef in a heavy Dutch oven. Drain excess fat.
2. Add onion, garlic, bell pepper. Cook until soft, about 6 minutes.
3. Stir in tomatoes, tomato sauce, beans, and broth.
4. Add all spices, brown sugar, salt, and pepper.
5. Bring to a low simmer. Cover partly. Cook 90 minutes, stirring occasionally.
6. Taste at 60 minutes and adjust salt and heat.
7. Serve with Grandma Elaine's cornbread on the side.

Notes

Mom always said the secret is the brown sugar and the smoked paprika. Do not skip either.
Better the second day. Freezes well in the pottery bowls (the wide ones hold about two servings).
Noah likes it with sharp cheddar and sour cream. Owen adds hot sauce.
Cornbread is not optional in this house.

Kitchen only. Nothing here has anything to do with the pottery books or the Riverbank booth.
