Dear Jordan,

It is our pleasure to extend an offer of seasonal employment with Bates Brewing Company for the 2027 brewing season. The offer below reflects our conversations across the interview stages and the recommendation Greg and the team brought forward.

Position and Term

|                 |                                                                   |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Position        | Seasonal Brewer                                                   |
| Reports to      | Greg Holloway, Head Brewer Assistant                              |
| Start date      | November 2, 2026                                                  |
| End date        | March 27, 2027                                                    |
| Hours           | 12 to 16 hours per day, six days per week, brewing season cadence |
| Hourly rate     | $22.00 per hour                                                  |
| Pay schedule    | Bi-weekly via Gusto, pay date Friday following the close cycle    |
| Employment type | Seasonal, at-will under North Carolina law                        |

Standard Conditions

This offer is contingent on completion of standard onboarding paperwork in BambooHR and successful payroll micro-deposit verification through Gusto prior to the first pay cycle. Bates Brewing Company operates a drug-free workplace consistent with North Carolina state requirements and brewery insurance carrier policy.

Brewing season hours are physically demanding and run on a 4:30 AM start through fermentation watch close. You will be expected to follow brewhouse safety protocols at all times and to take direction from Greg on the floor.

Confidentiality

By accepting this position you agree to hold all proprietary brewing information, including recipes, yeast cultures, supplier terms, and production volumes, in strict confidence both during and after the term of seasonal employment.

Acceptance

If you accept these terms, please sign and date below and return to the brewery office before the first day of the season. We look forward to having you back on the floor.
