

KYOTO CRAFT MUSEUM

Permanent Collection Commission Agreement

DocuSign envelope reference KCM-COM-2026-014
Original draft dated April 11, 2026

Parties

Kyoto Craft Museum, curatorial office, represented by Tomomi Ishida, Curator of Contemporary Ceramics.
Margaret Farmer, independent ceramic artist, Higashiyama Craft Collective, Kyoto.

Scope of Commission

The Artist will produce three large-scale ceramic vessels for entry into the Kyoto Craft Museum permanent collection. Each vessel shall be wheel-thrown and hand-built stoneware, wood-fired in the Shigaraki tradition, with a mountain-ash wood-ash glaze surface consistent with the Artist's ongoing body of work.
Vessel One: approximate height 62 cm, mouth diameter 34 cm.
Vessel Two: approximate height 58 cm, mouth diameter 38 cm.
Vessel Three: approximate height 66 cm, mouth diameter 30 cm.

Fee

Total commission fee JPY 3,600,000, inclusive of materials, firing costs, and studio labor. No separate materials allowance.
Installment schedule.

Installment	Trigger	Amount JPY
1 of 2	On execution of this agreement	1,800,000
2 of 2	On delivery and acceptance of all three vessels	1,800,000

Delivery Deadline

The Artist shall deliver all three vessels to the Kyoto Craft Museum receiving dock no later than December 31, 2026.

Ownership and Reproduction

Upon acceptance the vessels become part of the permanent collection. The Museum obtains non-exclusive reproduction rights for catalog, wall label, educational, and archival purposes. The Artist retains all other rights.

Insurance

Vessels are insured under the Museum's incoming-loan floater from the moment of receipt at the loading dock.

Termination

Either party may terminate for material breach on thirty days written notice. In the event of termination after the first installment is paid, unfinished work in progress remains the property of the Artist.

Signatures

This is a draft envelope. Signature blocks were prepared for both parties but were superseded by the amendment negotiated in August 2026. See the amendment document for the executed terms.

Tomomi Ishida, Curator of Contemporary Ceramics, Kyoto Craft Museum

Margaret Farmer, Artist