

Brookhaven Academy

4420 Garrison Street NW, Washington, DC 20016 . Office of the Middle and Upper School

Fall Parent Teacher Conference Sign Up

Dear Wright family, fall conferences will be held on Thursday, October 8, 2026. Please reserve one slot per student. Siblings have been grouped on the same afternoon so families can attend together. Confirm by October 1.

Student	Grade	Advisor	Reserved slot	Room
Layla Wright	9	Ms. Petrakis	Thursday, Oct 8, 4:00 PM	Upper 214
Nabil Wright	6	Mr. Donnelly	Thursday, Oct 8, 4:30 PM	Middle 108

Notes from the office

Layla is invited to the fall orchestra showcase on October 23, and advisors will discuss her violin elective placement at the conference. Nabil's advisor would like to talk through the move to a more structured homework routine now that middle school has picked up. If a second parent plans to join, both of these slots can be attended back to back.

How the afternoon works

Each conference is a focused fifteen minutes with the student's advisor. The schedule is tight so that every family is seen on time, so please arrive a few minutes early and plan to wrap as the next family is called. If you need longer than the slot allows, the advisor will arrange a follow up by phone or a secure video link in the week that follows.

Arrival and check in

Enter through the Garrison Street main doors and check in at the front desk, where you will receive a short map to the Upper and Middle School rooms. Visitor parking is available in the lower lot, and street parking is open after four in the afternoon. Allow extra time, as the lot fills quickly on conference days.

Attending both students

Because Layla and Nabil have been booked back to back, you can move straight from Upper 214 at 4:00 to Middle 108 at 4:30. The two buildings connect through the central courtyard, a short walk under cover. If only one parent can attend, the advisors are glad to share written notes afterward.

If you cannot make it

Conferences are not required, but they are the best chance this term to hear how each child is settling in. If neither parent can attend on October 8, reply to the office and we will offer a phone slot in the following week.

Preparing for each conversation

A few minutes of thought ahead of time makes the short slot count. The advisors will lead, but the conferences work best as a two way exchange, so bring the questions that matter most to your family.

For Layla, grade 9

Ms. Petrakis will speak to Layla's transition into the Upper School, her course load, and the orchestra elective. Good questions to consider are how the violin placement fits her schedule, whether the reading workload is balanced across her classes, and how she is finding the step up in independent study.

For Nabil, grade 6

Mr. Donnelly will focus on the move into a more structured homework routine and how Nabil is managing the new pace of middle school. You may want to ask about a consistent evening study plan, how he is balancing activities such as basketball with his coursework, and where a little more structure at home would help most.

Confirming your slots

Reservation confirmed under parent contact jessica.wright.dc@gmail.com. To change or release a slot, reply to the school office by October 1, 2026, so it can be offered to another family. We look forward to seeing you on the eighth.

Key fall and winter dates

A short calendar to keep on the refrigerator. Dates that affect both students are listed first, with the music dates that families have asked about below.

Date	What is happening
October 1, 2026	Confirm or release your conference slots
October 8, 2026	Fall parent teacher conferences
October 23, 2026	Fall orchestra showcase, Upper School
January 11, 2027	Spring semester begins
February 19, 2027	Winter orchestra concert

Questions families often ask

Can both parents attend the same slot?

Yes. Each slot is set for the family rather than a single parent, and the two students are booked back to back so you can move from one advisor to the next without a gap. Let the front desk know at check in if both of you are coming.

Are students expected to come?

Students are welcome but not required. Many advisors find a short student led moment helpful, especially in the Upper School, where Layla can speak to her own goals for the term. Use your judgment for what suits each child.

What if we miss the conference?

Reply to the office and we will arrange a phone slot in the week after October 8. Advisors are also glad to share written notes so nothing is lost if the evening does not work for your family.

Who do we contact with questions?

The Office of the Middle and Upper School is the single point of contact for scheduling, room changes, and follow up. Reach out by reply to this notice and we will route your question to the right advisor.