SEMINAR PROGRAMME - AUTUMN SEMESTER 2025

Semester period: 12 October 2025 - 31 January 2026

Graduate Seminars

MARE 6010 - Maritime Archaeology Methods

Instructor: Prof. Dr. Gloria Gross

Schedule: Tuesdays 11:00-13:00 | Room: H.214 | Credits: 8 ECTS

This seminar introduces graduate students to the theoretical and practical methods of maritime archaeology. The course covers the full research cycle from archival research and remote survey to underwater excavation, finds analysis, and publication. Students will develop practical skills in sonar data interpretation, dive-planning, and finds recording, and will complete a semester project involving the analysis of a real dataset from the North Frisian Survey.
