Technical Requirements

Two acoustic guitar direct inputs (DI boxes provided by Festival). One vocal microphone on a stand. Monitor wedge mix: guitar signal primary, vocal secondary. Festival provides PA system, front-of-house engineer, and stage monitoring. Performer provides own instruments and cables.

Performer Obligations

The Chesapeake Acoustic Collective agrees to perform a 45-minute acoustic music set on the date and at the time specified above. The Performer agrees to arrive at load-in no later than 1:30 PM and to attend the scheduled sound check. The Performer will maintain a set appropriate for an all-ages outdoor festival audience. The Performer will not perform material that is defamatory, obscene, or likely to incite harm.

Cancellation

If the Performer cancels with fewer than 14 days notice, the advance payment is non-refundable. If the Festival cancels due to weather or circumstances beyond its control, the Festival will provide the Performer with a first-right offer to perform at the next year's event. If the Festival cancels for other reasons with fewer than 14 days notice, the full fee is due to the Performer.

Intellectual Property

The Festival may record and photograph the performance for archival, promotional, and social media use. The Performer retains all rights to their musical compositions and arrangements. The Performer grants the Festival a limited, non-exclusive license to use recordings and photographs for non-commercial promotional purposes with attribution.

Liability

The Festival carries general liability insurance for the event premises. The Performer is responsible for the safety of their own equipment. The Festival is not responsible for loss or damage to Performer equipment except in cases of Festival staff negligence.
