

Open Floor Studio

A vision for a Hartford dance-fitness studio

The idea in one line

A welcoming, affordable studio where the work is showing up, and the room makes showing up easy.

Who it is for

Adults and teens across every level. The nervous first-timer on a Tuesday beginner night and the advanced dancer chasing a clean double pirouette, in the same building, on the same floor.

What makes it work

- Twelve years of teaching and an existing, loyal student base
- Low-pressure beginner classes alongside a performance team
- Seasonal showcases that turn students into a community
- A patient, fully-funded launch, no lease until the numbers are right

Where it stands

Eighteen-plus months of planning. A dedicated fund growing monthly at the credit union. Spaces toured in Parkville and Frog Hollow. Startup estimated near $18,000. Decision gate: a signed lease at the right rent and a three-month operating cushion.
