
Re: Review and confirmation of estate plan for Clara Maria Leon

Dear Clara Maria Leon,

Thank you for meeting with us to review your estate plan. This letter confirms the documents we reviewed and updated, and the key designations now in place. As always, we recommend a review every two to three years or after any major life change. Please read this letter carefully and keep it with your records.

Key Designations

- Healthcare surrogate: Felipe Leon as primary, Rosa Leon-Kaplan as secondary.
- Durable power of attorney: Felipe Leon as primary agent, Rosa Leon-Kaplan as successor.
- Successor trustee of the revocable living trust: Felipe Leon, then Rosa Leon-Kaplan.
- Residuary beneficiaries per the terms of the trust, with specific gifts to grandchildren Ethan Kaplan and Noa Kaplan.

Funding Reminder

Your condominium and your Coastal National accounts are titled in the name of the revocable living trust. Your Meridian brokerage account names the trust as beneficiary, and your IRA names individual beneficiaries as we discussed. A complete inventory is maintained in your records, see workbook X09.

Recommended Next Steps

- Keep signed originals in your safe deposit box and copies in your secure document folder.
- Confirm beneficiary designations after any change in financial institutions.
- Revisit the plan in 2027 or sooner if circumstances change.
- Share the location of documents with your primary agent.

Common Questions

What does the revocable living trust accomplish? It allows the assets titled in the trust to pass to your beneficiaries without probate, while you retain full control during your lifetime and may amend or revoke it at any time.

Why is funding important? A trust only governs the assets actually titled in its name. Confirming titling and beneficiary designations is what makes the plan work as intended. The inventory in workbook X09 should be kept current.

When should the plan be revisited? Every two to three years, or sooner after a change in family circumstances, a move, or a significant change in assets or tax law.

Who should know where the documents are? Your primary agent and successor trustee should know the location of signed originals and how to reach this office.

It was a pleasure to assist you. Please call our office with any question.

Sincerely,

Hartwell and Vance, P.A.
