

Retirement Income Plan

Income, withdrawals, and reserve strategy

Personal planning summary for review with Sheila Ramos, Meridian Wealth Partners.

Monthly Income

Source	Amount
Social Security	$2,900
Pension (prior firm)	$1,100
Investment withdrawal	$1,500
Total net monthly	$5,500

Spending and Buffer

- Fixed and variable costs run about $3,220 per month, detailed in workbook X01.
- Monthly buffer of roughly $2,280, with $450 routed to savings and reserve.
- No debt; condominium owned outright.
- Emergency reserve held at Coastal National, see statement P01.

Portfolio Snapshot

- Total portfolio about $620,000, conservative growth and income.
- Roughly half equity, forty percent bonds and treasury, the rest cash and IRA.
- Withdrawal rate near three percent, sustainable for the plan horizon.
- Holdings detail in workbook X02; quarterly statement in P02.

Risk and Review

- Conservative allocation chosen to protect income, not chase return.
- Rebalance reviewed each quarter; next review October 2026.
- Long-term care insurance in place to protect the estate.
- Estate documents current as of October 2025, see letter P07.

Questions for the Review

- Is the bond and treasury mix right for the current rate environment?
- Should the cash reserve be larger given upcoming travel plans?
- Confirm the withdrawal schedule still fits the tax picture in workbook X03.
- Review beneficiary designations against the estate plan.
