

NUTR 301: Community Nutrition - Syllabus

Course Information

- Code: NUTR 301 - Community Nutrition
- Institution: University of Maryland
- Instructor: Courtney Moore MS RD
- Schedule: Tuesday and Thursday 6:00-7:15 PM
- Credits: 3
- Final exam: May 14 2027
- Grades due: May 21 2027 hard deadline

Course Description

Principles of community nutrition including nutritional needs across the lifespan, food security, culturally adapted interventions, public health policy, and program planning. Special emphasis on dietary interventions for underserved communities and Type 2 diabetes prevention.

Learning Objectives

- Assess nutritional needs of diverse community populations
- Design culturally appropriate nutrition education programs
- Evaluate food insecurity and its health consequences
- Apply program planning models to community nutrition settings
- Analyze federal nutrition programs and their impact

Grading

- Participation and weekly responses: 15%
- Community needs assessment paper: 20%
- Midterm examination: 25%
- Nutrition program proposal: 25%
- Final examination: 15%

Academic Integrity

All work must represent your own analysis and writing. Late assignments receive a 5-point deduction per day.