Dear Mr. Jefferson,

Thank you for submitting the repair estimate and supplement request for the above-referenced claim. We have reviewed the original estimate (your reference 2025-0847) and the supplement documentation, including the teardown photographs and the additional damage report.

After review by our appraiser, John Marchetti, we are approving the supplement in the amount of $824.00. This brings the total authorized repair amount to $4,408.00. The supplement approval includes the additional radiator support repair time (2.5 hours), the condenser replacement, and the additional blend panel refinish on the hood.

Payment in the amount of $3,908.00 (total authorized less the insured's $500.00 deductible) will be issued via electronic funds transfer to the bank account on file for your shop within 5 business days. Please collect the deductible from the vehicle owner at the time of delivery.

If additional hidden damage is discovered during the repair process, please contact me directly before proceeding with additional work. Supplement requests must include itemized line items, photographs, and a brief description of why the damage was not visible during the initial inspection.

Sincerely,

Maria Vasquez
