

Bay Runner Charters

Chesapeake Bay sport fishing with a third-generation waterman

About the Boat

- F/V Bay Runner, 42 foot fiberglass deadrise, twin Cummins diesels.
- Captain Jack Singleton, USCG Master 100 ton, on the water since age twelve.
- Home slip 47, Annapolis City Marina, minutes to prime water.
- Up to six passengers, family friendly, gear and bait provided.

Trips and Rates

- Half day, four hours, $650, up to six anglers.
- Full day, eight hours, $1,150, up to six anglers.
- Target species: rockfish, bluefish, and flounder by season.
- Booked through Pete Andersen, Chesapeake Charter Connection.

Season and What to Bring

- Charter season June 1 through August 31, fall rockfish windows in October.
- Bring sunscreen, soft cooler, snacks, and a Maryland fishing license if required.
- We provide rods, reels, tackle, bait, and the cleaning of your catch.
- Trips run rain or shine, weather and small craft advisories permitting.

Booking and Deposit

- Deposit holds the date, balance due on the dock.
- Schedule and deposits tracked in workbook X05.
- Cancellations for weather are rescheduled at no charge.
- Visit bayrunnercharters.com or call to book.

Contact

- Captain Jack Singleton, Bay Runner Charters.
- Bookings: bookings@bayrunnercharters.com.
- Broker: Pete Andersen, (410) 555-0511.
- See you on the water.