Provisional notes and caveats

Block 7 and block 8 (night float, December 14, 2026 through February 7, 2027) reflect a coverage gap flagged during the September planning session. The program has committed to reducing the night float stretch back to a standard four week block once coverage from the incoming intern class stabilizes. Final assignment for the January window will be posted no later than November 15, 2026 through the program admin channel.

Personal leave requests for the January 25 through February 1, 2027 window are discouraged in this provisional draft due to the night float extension. Residents planning international family travel in that window are advised to hold plans until the November 15, 2026 finalized schedule is posted.

This document supersedes any earlier provisional rotation drafts. It will be superseded by the finalized schedule when posted.
