Session details

This confirms a scheduled recurrent simulator check in the Boeing 737 MAX full flight simulator. The session includes a briefing, the maneuvers validation, and a debrief. Plan for a four hour block. Bring a current FAA First-Class Medical certificate and a government photo identification.

Preparation

Review the recurrent study items issued by Ridgecrest Air flight operations ahead of the session. Currency must be valid through the event date. Contact the training center if your line schedule changes so the slot can be rebooked.

This is a training record only and does not constitute a check airman endorsement. The official result is filed with Ridgecrest Air flight operations after the session.
