

AP United States History: Course Syllabus

Eastbridge High School, Boston Public Schools

|            |                           |               |                               |
|------------|---------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------|
| Instructor | David Russo               | Room          | 214                           |
| Email      | david.russo@Finthesiss.ai | Prep Sessions | Tuesdays, 3:15 PM             |
| Course     | AP US History             | Club          | History Club, Fridays 3:00 PM |

Course Description

This course covers United States history from the colonial period to the present, taught through primary sources and the historical thinking skills tested on the AP exam: sourcing, contextualization, causation, and argumentation. Students write document-based essays and long essays throughout the year.

Units

| Unit   | Topic                                       | Approx. Weeks |
|--------|---------------------------------------------|---------------|
| 1 to 3 | Colonial era to the Revolution              | 8             |
| 4 to 5 | New nation and expansion                    | 6             |
| 6      | Civil War and Reconstruction                | 4             |
| 7      | Gilded Age and Labor History (1870 to 1970) | 3             |
| 8 to 9 | Modern America to the present               | 7             |

Grading

| Category                       | Weight     |
|--------------------------------|------------|
| Document-based and long essays | 35 percent |
| Unit exams                     | 30 percent |
| Source analysis and homework   | 20 percent |
| Participation and discussion   | 15 percent |

The AP exam is in early February. Extra preparation sessions run Tuesdays after school beginning in the fall. Bring questions to History Club on Fridays.