

NETFLIX

Membership & billing notification

Your monthly price is changing

A summary of an update to your Netflix membership

Hi Alejandro,

We're writing to let you know that the price of your Netflix plan is changing. We don't take price changes lightly - the new price helps us keep bringing you more of the shows and films you love. Your membership, saved profiles, and viewing history are unaffected. The new price takes effect on your next billing date on or after the effective date below.

Membership & price detail

Account email	alejandro.rios@Finthesiss.ai
Member since	March 2019
Plan	Standard (1080p HD, 2 supported devices)
Billing	Monthly, auto-renew
Previous price	$15.49 / month
New price	$17.99 / month
Price change	+$2.50 / month
Effective date	July 14, 2026
Payment method	Card on file ending 4417

What you can do

- Keep your plan. No action needed - your membership continues at $17.99/month.
- Change your plan. Switch to a different tier anytime under Account > Plan Details.
- Cancel. You can cancel anytime; there are no cancellation fees.

For your records: the new price of $17.99 is the current authoritative amount and supersedes the prior $15.49 shown on older receipts and confirmations. Older receipts predating July 14, 2026 reflect the previous price and should be treated as out of date.

Questions? Visit the Help Center at help.netflix.com or sign in and select "Help". This is a service notification regarding your account and was sent to the email on file.