

Kristy Blackwell

Ceramic artist and Founding Director, Modern Edge Gallery

Albuquerque, NM 87106 kristy@modernedgegallery.com

(505) 555-0190

Education

MFA, Studio Art, Desert Mesa University, 2012

BFA, Ceramics, Southwest Arts Institute, Santa Fe, 2008

Selected Solo Exhibitions

2026, Vessel as Landscape, Southwest Arts Museum, Santa Fe, opening November 13

2023, Coil and Ground, Desert Rain Gallery, Santa Fe

2020, Slow Water, Turquoise Mesa Gallery, Santa Fe

Professional Experience

2019 to present, Founding Director, Modern Edge Gallery, Albuquerque. Represent 18 emerging contemporary artists, seven to eight exhibitions per year.

2017 to 2019, Exhibition Coordinator, contemporary gallery, Albuquerque.

2014 to 2017, Independent studio artist, Santa Fe gallery representation.

2012 to 2014, Adjunct Ceramics Instructor, Desert Mesa University.

Studio Practice

Large scale coil built vessels, 24 to 36 inches, using specialty clay and natural pigments. Current series, Vessel as Landscape. Studio in Nob Hill with electric and gas reduction kilns.

Curriculum vitae updated October 2026.