

Certificate of Training Completion

This certifies that

Jeff Peterson

has completed the annual Winter Avalanche Rescue and Helicopter Operations training module as an active volunteer member, in good standing.

Training completed	December 5, 2025
Valid through	December 2026
Member status	Active volunteer, in good standing
Issued by	Mike Reilly, Search and Rescue Coordinator
Jurisdiction	Teton County, Wyoming

Modules covered

The annual training refreshes the core winter rescue skills that volunteers must hold to deploy with the team. Each module combines a briefing with hands on practice in the field alongside the resort patrol.

Module	Skills covered	Result
Avalanche companion rescue	Beacon search, probe, strategic shoveling	Pass
Helicopter operations	Approach, loading, hand signals, safety circle	Pass
Patient packaging	Spinal precaution, litter, sled transport	Pass
Radio and coordination	Net discipline, role clarity, handoff	Pass

Volunteer record and standing

This member is an active winter volunteer who responds to backcountry incidents in the county, often in coordination with the resort patrol. Recent field experience keeps these skills current beyond the annual classroom refresher.

Record item	Detail
Role	Winter avalanche and helicopter operations volunteer
Recent field response	Backcountry gate evacuation near Teton Pass, January 2026
Medical credential	Wilderness First Responder, current
Next annual refresher	Fall 2026

Continuing requirements

- Maintain a current Wilderness First Responder credential.
- Complete the annual winter rescue and helicopter operations refresher.
- Participate in scheduled team trainings and callouts as available.

Mike Reilly, Search and Rescue Coordinator, Teton County, Wyoming