Why this note exists

Just so everything is in one place and settled in my own head. It is done. Financially clean, emotionally quiet. I keep it for reference, not because anything about it is still open. It has no bearing on work, the practice, or anything a stranger should ever see.

Reference: dissolution finalized August 2025, Franklin County. Records retained privately.

- This one-page summary, my own shorthand, not a legal document.

What is intentionally not here

No financial figures, no correspondence, nothing about him beyond the administrative facts. This is a status note so everything sits settled in one place. It is closed. It has no bearing on work, the practice, or anything anyone else should see.

Kept for my reference only. Shared with no one outside Megan and Rachel.
