Mijo I need to tell you something and I did not want to say it in front of Frank tonight. His pledge number worries me. He counted the Whitfields and the Padillas like they had already given. I do not remember either of them writing a check or handing me cash after service.

Matt Coleman

I saw the same thing. I need to sit with Stripe and PayPal this week and match the tracker line by line. Do not say anything to Frank yet. Let me get the raw picture first.

Rosa Villarreal

OK. But it is going to come out one way or another. Better we know than Pastor David gets a surprise Tuesday.

I ran into Elena at the vegetable stand this morning. She wants to talk pricing. She said the tamales cost is up from the September quote. I told her to email you directly.

Matt Coleman

Copy that. I will wait for her email and look at what it means for the budget before I say anything.

Rosa Villarreal

She also said her supplier raised the pork price two weeks ago. I do not know if that will come up in her email.

Matt Coleman

Understood. I will see what she sends.

Linda emailed Frank today about the six pledges in the tracker that say no Stripe record no PayPal record. Frank said he counts them as received because our people always come through. Mijo that is not accounting.

Matt Coleman

I saw the thread. I am drafting a private reply to Frank tonight to reconcile before Tuesday. I do not want to embarrass him at the council meeting but I also cannot present a number I cannot back up.

Rosa Villarreal

Do the reconciliation. Frank will understand once he sees it side by side. He is a good man but this is not his strength.

Matt honest question. If Pastor David asks Tuesday do we tell him the money is short?

Matt Coleman

Yes. He has already asked me privately for the raw number. I am giving him $4,850 landed against roughly $6,610 committed once the vendor escalations and the wellness overage are counted. That is a $1,760 hole.

Rosa Villarreal

Ay Dios mio. OK. Better honest than surprised. Do we have a plan for the hole?

Matt Coleman

Not yet. That is a council decision not mine to make alone. I am bringing the number and the options. They pick.

I went to the fellowship hall last night after choir practice and pulled the sign-up sheet off the bulletin board. Between Typeform and Eventbrite and the paper sign-ups after service I counted closer to 215 heads coming Saturday. That is not 175. We are going to run out of chairs and tamales.

Matt Coleman

Understood. I am sizing it against 175 in the council report and calling the gap out plainly. Elena has already quoted us a per-plate add-on for anything above 175. I am holding on approving it until Tuesday.

Rosa Villarreal

Chairs too. Can EPR bring more?

Matt Coleman

I have not asked yet. It is on the list.

One more thing. I heard from Betty Jean at the market this afternoon. She still wants to give the $75 but she does not know how to work PayPal. She said she will bring cash Sunday.

Matt Coleman

OK. If it lands Sunday I will add it to the log and update the number. Until then it stays in pending.

Rosa Villarreal

Good. See you Sunday. Get some rest mijo. This week is going to be long.

Matt Coleman

You too Rosa. Thank you.
