Buyer contact	Javier Romero	Lots	MIL-2526-006, -007, -004
Season	2025-26	Payment	Net 30

Article 1 - Product

The Supplier shall supply single-estate extra-virgin olive oil of the Picual variety from the named lots, each accompanied by a Certificate of Analysis from an accredited laboratory. The flagship lot MIL-2526-006 carries a sensory panel score of 86.5 and free acidity of 0.16%.

Article 2 - Quality specification

Parameter	Requirement
Classification	Extra virgin (EU standard)
Free acidity	<= 0.30% (premium)
Sensory panel	> 85 / 100
Certificate of Analysis	per lot, accredited lab
Traceability	parcel and lot id on documentation

Article 3 - Volume and allocation

The Buyer purchases 1,920 litres of premium oil under PO RGD-2026-0118, allocated from lots MIL-2526-006, MIL-2526-007 and MIL-2526-004, representing approximately 40%% of the estate's premium output this season. Allocation is tracked in the estate sales order book (workbook X04).

Article 4 - Price and payment

Item	Terms
Unit price	as agreed per litre, premium grade
Currency	EUR
Payment terms	Net 30 days from delivery
Invoicing	per shipment, with packing list

Article 5 - Delivery

- Delivery ex-works estate or to the Buyer's Sevilla warehouse as agreed per shipment.
- Each shipment with commercial invoice, packing list and lot Certificate of Analysis.
- Changes to delivery commitments confirmed in writing by both parties.

Article 6 - Quality assurance and rejection

The Buyer may verify any lot against its Certificate of Analysis. Oil failing the agreed specification may be rejected within a reasonable inspection period; the Supplier will replace or credit rejected product. The Supplier's quality records (workbook X08) are available to support any query.

Article 7 - Confidentiality

Production data, yields and pricing are confidential to the parties and not disclosed externally without consent.

Article 8 - Term and good faith

This agreement covers the 2025-26 season with intent to renew by mutual agreement. The parties deal in good faith; in this region a handshake is honoured alongside the contract.

Article 9 - Force majeure

Neither party is liable for failure to perform owing to events beyond reasonable control, including adverse weather affecting the harvest, crop failure, or transport disruption. The Supplier will give timely notice of any event likely to affect allocation or delivery.

Article 10 - Governing law

This agreement is governed by Spanish law. Disputes are resolved first by good-faith discussion between the owner and the buyer, and failing that under the competent courts of Cordoba.
