

JOHANNESBURG METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Humanities -- Department of Journalism and Media Studies
P.O. Box 17011, Doornfontein, Johannesburg, 2028
Tel: 011 559 3000 www.jmu.ac.za

YOUTH MEDIA MENTORSHIP PROGRAMME

Mentorship Partnership Agreement

Agreement reference: JMU-YMMP-2026-AG

Date of agreement: 15 January 2026

1. PARTIES

Institution: Johannesburg Metropolitan University, represented by Prof. Dumini Nxumalo, Head of Department, Journalism and Media Studies.

Industry Mentor: Asha Gallegos, Morning Drive Host, Rhythm FM 94.7, employee reference KMG-2019-0447.

2. PURPOSE

This agreement formalises the mentorship relationship between JMU and the Industry Mentor under the Youth Media Mentorship Programme (YMMP). The programme places four third-year journalism students with industry practitioners each semester to build practical broadcasting skills.

3. STUDENT COHORT

For the February 2026 semester, the following four students are assigned to this mentorship track:

1. Thato Sebola Student No. 202308841
2. Lena Ferreira Student No. 202309214
3. Siphamandla Dube Student No. 202310077
4. Ayasha Nkosi Student No. 202311532

4. OBLIGATIONS OF THE MENTOR

The Mentor agrees to: conduct a minimum of one two-hour session per student per fortnight throughout the semester; provide written feedback on each student's submitted work; host a minimum of two studio observation visits per student during the semester; submit a written progress report to the Department by 16 October 2026.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Student work produced during the programme may be used as portfolio samples by the student. No student work may be broadcast or published commercially without the student's written consent and the approval of the Department Head.

6. COMPENSATION

The mentorship is provided on a pro bono basis. The University will acknowledge the Mentor in all YMMP programme communications and provide a certificate of participation at the close of the semester.

Signed at Johannesburg on 15 January 2026.

Prof. Dumi Nxumalo Asha Gallegos
JMU Dept. of Journalism Industry Mentor