

Whitfield Research Fellowship, Summer 2027

Dear Allen Weber,

On behalf of the Whitfield selection committee, it is my pleasure to offer you the Whitfield Research Fellowship for the summer of 2027. Your proposal on small-city zoning reform was selected from a competitive pool, and the committee was particularly impressed by the continuity between your junior research paper and the questions you intend to pursue this summer.

This award carries a stipend of $3,000 and a supervised placement at the Boston Coalition for Equitable Housing, where you will work under Dr. Priya Anand. The placement runs from 2027-06-15 through 2027-08-14.

1. Terms of Award

Field	Detail
Fellowship code	WRF-2027-114
Stipend	$3,000
Disbursement date	2027-06-03
Placement	Boston Coalition for Equitable Housing
Mentor	Dr. Priya Anand
Focus area	Small-city zoning reform in New England
Start	2027-06-15
End	2027-08-14

2. Disbursement and Banking

The stipend will be disbursed as a single payment on 2027-06-03 to the bank account on file. Fellows are reminded that the stipend is taxable income and should be recorded for the 2027 tax year. A copy of the disbursement appears in the recipient bank record (see savings statement, reference P03).

3. Expectations

- Maintain a weekly research log and post notes to the fellowship team wiki by Friday each week, tracked in the hours workbook (reference X07).
- Attend the Tuesday cohort check-in with the summer mentor.
- Submit a mid-summer memo by the midpoint of the placement.
- Deliver a final research report and a short presentation at the close of the term (see report P06 and deck PP04).
- Acknowledge the Whitfield Fellowship in any resulting academic work.

4. Stipend Agreement

This agreement is entered into between Harbor Point University, Office of Undergraduate Research (the University) and Allen Weber (the Fellow). By accepting the award, the Fellow agrees to the terms below.

4.1 Scope of Work

The Fellow will conduct supervised research on small-city zoning reform in New England, scoped to two case cities, and will contribute to the host organization's ongoing housing policy work. The scope mirrors the senior thesis under Prof. Marsh (thesis code THS-PS-2028) without duplicating deliverables.

4.2 Time Commitment

The Fellow will commit approximately 18 hours per week across the placement window. The schedule is arranged with the mentor and accommodates the Fellow's continuing part-time employment at Morningside Coffee.

4.3 Payment Schedule

Date	Amount USD	Note
2027-06-03	$3,000	Single disbursement to account on file
2027-08-14	$0	Placement complete, final report due

5. Acceptance

Please confirm acceptance of this award through the Office of Undergraduate Research portal by 2027-05-09. We look forward to your work this summer and congratulate you again on a strong application.

Office of Undergraduate Research, Harbor Point University