

Sunday Pozole, Abuelita's Way

For the pot

- Hominy, drained and rinsed
- Pork shoulder, cut into chunks
- Dried guajillo and ancho, soaked
- Garlic, onion, oregano, bay leaf

Method

Simmer the pork with onion and garlic until tender, about 2 hours. Blend the soaked chiles smooth and strain into the pot. Add the hominy and cook another 45 minutes. Salt to taste.

To finish

Top with cabbage, radish, oregano, and lime. Make it every Sunday, no exceptions. Tastes more like home the second day.
